

David P. Molloy's Return From Hawaii Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. David Patrick Molloy have returned from a honeymoon in Hawaii and are now at home at 2503 W 157th St., Gardena. Mrs. Molloy, was until her recent marriage at the Mormon Church in Torrance, Miss Sharon L. Brossard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brossard, 23 Sorrel Lane, Rolling Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Molloy, 17916 Atkinson Ave., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride wore a sheath gown of peau de soie. Pearls and imported French lace enhanced the bodice and the full skirt fell into a long train. A net and pearl headpiece held the illusion veil and she carried long stemmed white roses and a small white Bible.

Mrs. Delores Lipowski, in a long gold gown and carrying yellow roses, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Nancy Nelson, Bonnie Molloy and Mrs. Sue Cheney. They wore long green gowns and carried yellow roses.

Mike Babcock performed the duties of best man and ushers were Jay Daines, Jack King and Fred Cheney.

Bishop Jay Sandberg of the Redondo Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints in Torrance, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was played by Jerry Snyder, who also accompanied Richard Bentley, soloist.

A reception was held at the church for the 200 guests. The bride's parents also entertained at their Rolling Hills home.

The new Mrs. Brossard was graduated from Narbonne High School, Los Angeles Harbor College and Brigham Young University. She is employed by Engi-
